

PHE have developed a new public information leaflet for trans and non-binary individuals, which can be found here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/nhs-population-screening-information-for-transgender-people>

It explains who is invited for breast screening, bowel cancer screening, cervical screening and AAA screening. It includes information about screening processes and how to access additional support and advice.